Choice Based Credit System Syllabus of Masters in Sociology: 2024-25

Course Structure with Distribution of Marks

Objectives of the course: Society which we live in is ever more complex and changing. In a Post-modern, Post-industrial and Post-truth world, Indian society is still squeezing in the intricate and complicated dyad of tradition and modernity while a host of processes of change are affecting the lives of people. It is, therefore, necessary to equip students to go beyond the common sense and perceive and understand the social reality in rational and scientific manner so that social vices and problems are contained and growing needs of society are addressed. In such a situation, Sociology has a vital role to play as a discipline in order to:

- Develop and promote a rational and scientific understanding of society.
- Understand and appreciate the complexity and uniqueness of Indian society.
- Differentiate between regenerative and degenerative elements of society and be able to appreciate and understand the inevitability of change.
- Identify the growing needs of our society and evaluate the effectiveness of means employed to address them.

Duration of the Course:

The course M.A. (Sociology) shall consist of two academic years divided into four semesters.

Structure of the Programme:

The M.A in Sociology programme consists of:

- (i) Core and Skill based courses of theory as well as practical papers which are compulsory for all students.
- (ii) Dissertation/Project Work/Summer training/Field work which can be done in an organization (Community, Government, Semi Government, NGOs Public Enterprises, etc.) approved by the Department.

Scheme of Examinations:

The examination shall be divided into two parts in which first part is continuous assessment or internal assessment and second part is semester assessment or external assessment. The schemes for the internal and external examinations shall be as under:

- A) The assessment of the student for theory paper shall be divided into two parts in which first part is continuous assessment or internal assessment (33.33% of maximum marks) and second part is semester assessment or external assessment (66.66% of maximum marks). For practical papers there will be both internal (50%) and external assessment (50%) of maximum marks.
- B) Each paper contains 150 marks for regular and non-collegiate students. Continuous assessment of marks 50 are divided into 30 marks for midterm test and 20 marks for seminars/project report/presentation for regular student. While continuous assessment of marks 50 are divided into 30 marks for report writing and 20 marks for viva-voce for non-collegiate students.
- C) A student who remains absent (defaulter) or fails or wants to improve the marks in the internal assessment may be permitted to appear in the desired paper(s) (only one time) in the same semester with the permission of the concerned head of the department. a defaulter / improvement fee of rupees 200/- per paper shall be charged from such candidates. duly forwarded application of such candidates by the teacher concerned shall be submitted to hod who may permit the candidate to appear in the internal assessment after depositing the defaulter/ improvement fee. a record of such candidates shall be kept in the department.
- D) THE EXTERNAL ASSESSMENT SHALL BE OF THREE HOURS DURATION FOR EACH THEORY PAPER.

The syllabus for each theory paper is divided into five independent units and each theory question paper will be divided into two sections as mentioned below:

- Section-A shall have 01 compulsory question comprising 10 questions (maximum 20 words answer) taking two questions from each unit. Each question shall be of two marks and total marks of this section will be 20. This section will be compulsory in the paper.
- Section-B will carry 80 marks equally divided into five long answer type questions (answer about in 500 words) and examiners are advised to set two questions from each unit and students are instructed to attempt five questions by selecting one question from each unit.

The pattern of question paper of external examination shall be as follows:
