e-Bid for "Supply of Goods and Hiring of Services for Examination related Works" General Terms & Conditions of Bid for Award of the Contract

Note:

- All the Terms and Conditions of the Rajasthan Transparency in Public Procurement (RTPP) Act, 2012 and RTPP Rules, 2013 will be strictly followed during the procurement of goods or hiring of any item, service, etc.
- In case of any ambiguity, decision will be taken by the University as per RTPP rules and provisions laid down by the Government of Rajasthan.
- Bidders should read all the terms and conditions carefully and comply strictly while sending their bids.

1. Eligibility of Bidders:

- (i) A bidder may be a natural person, private entity, government-owned entity or, where permitted in the bidding documents, any combination of them with a formal intent to enter into an agreement or under an existing agreement in the form of a Joint Venture. In the case of a Joint Venture: -
 - (a) All parties to the Joint Venture shall sign the bid and they shall be jointly and severally liable; and
 - (b) A Joint Venture shall nominate a representative who shall have the authority to conduct all business for and on behalf of any or all the parties of the Joint Venture during the bidding process. In the event the bid of Joint Venture is accepted, either they shall form a registered Joint Venture company/firm or otherwise all the parties to Joint Venture shall sign the Agreement.
- (ii) A bidder should not have a conflict of interest in the procurement in question as stated in RTPP rule 81 and the bidding documents. The procuring entity shall take appropriate actions against the bidder in accordance with section 11 and Chapter IV of the Act, if it determines that a conflict of interest has flawed the integrity of any procurement process. All bidders found to have a conflict of interest shall be disqualified.
- (iii) A bidder debarred under section 46 shall not be eligible to participate in any procurement process undertaken by-
 - (a) any procuring entity, if debarred by the State Government; and
 - (b) A procuring entity if debarred by such procuring entity.
- (iv) In case of procurement of goods, bidder must be a manufacturer, distributor or bonafide dealer in the goods and it shall furnish necessary proof for the same in the specified format. Where applicable, proof of authorization by the manufacturer or country distributor in India, shall be enclosed.
- (v) Any change in the constitution of the firm, etc., shall be notified forthwith by the contractor in writing to the procuring entity and such change shall not relive any former member of the firm, etc., from any liability under the contract.
- (vi) No new partner(s) shall be accepted in the firm by the contractor in respect of the contract unless he/they agree to abide by all its terms & conditions and submit a written agreement in the office of the procuring entity to this effect. The Contractor's receipt for acknowledgment or that of any partners subsequently accepted as above shall bind all of them and will be sufficient discharge or any of the purpose of the contract.

2. Bid Security:

- (i) Bid security shall not be taken in case of petty procurement valuing up to rupees ten thousand and procurement by the methods of limited bidding under clause (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act, request for quotations, spot purchase, single source procurement and competitive negotiations.
- (ii) In case of open competitive bidding, two-stage bidding, rate contract, electronic reverse auction, bid security shall be two percent or as specified by the State Government of the estimated value of subject matter of procurement put to bid. In case of Small-Scale Industries of Rajasthan, it shall be half percent of the quantity offered for supply and in case of sick industries, other than Small Scale Industries, whose cases are pending with Board of Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR), it shall be one percent of the value of bid. Concessional bid security may be taken from registered bidders as specified by the State Government. Every bidder, if not exempted, participating in the procurement process shall be required to furnish the bid security as specified in the notice inviting bids.
- (iii) In lieu of bid security, a bid securing declaration shall be taken from Departments of the State Government and Undertakings, Corporations, Autonomous bodies, Registered Societies, Cooperative Societies which are owned or controlled or managed by the State Government and Government Undertakings of the Central Government.
- (iv) Bid security instrument or cash receipt of bid security or a bid securing declaration shall necessarily accompany the sealed bid.
- (v) Bid security of a bidder lying with the procuring entity in respect of other bids awaiting decision shall not be adjusted towards bid security for the fresh bids. The bid security originally deposited may, however, be taken into consideration in case bids are re-invited.
- (vi) The bid security may be given in the form of cash, a banker's cheque or demand draft or bank guarantee, in specified format, of a scheduled bank or deposit through eGRAS. The bid security must remain valid thirty days beyond the original or extended validity period of the bid
- (vii) The bidding documents may stipulate that the issuer of the bid security and the confirmer, if any, of the bid security, as well as the form and terms of the bid security, must be acceptable to the procuring entity. In cases of International Competitive Bidding, the bidding documents may in addition stipulate that the bid security shall be issued by an issuer in India.
- (viii) Prior to presenting a submission, a bidder may request the procuring entity to confirm the acceptability of proposed issuer of a bid security or of a proposed confirmer, if required. The procuring entity shall respond promptly to such a request.
- (ix) The bank guarantee presented as bid security shall be got confirmed from the concerned issuing bank. However, the confirmation of the acceptability of a proposed issuer or of any proposed confirmer does not preclude the procuring entity from rejecting the bid security on the ground that the issuer or the confirmer, as the case may be, has become insolvent or has otherwise ceased to be creditworthy.
- (x) The bid security of unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded soon after final acceptance of successful bid and signing of Agreement and submitting performance security.
- (xi) The Bid security taken from a bidder shall be forfeited in the following cases, namely: -
 - (a) When the bidder withdraws or modifies its bid after opening of bids;
 - (b) When the bidder does not execute the agreement, if any, after placement of supply / work order within the specified period;
 - (c) When the bidder fails to commence the supply of the goods or service or execute work as per supply / work order within the time specified;
 - (d) When the bidder does not deposit the performance security within specified period after the supply / work order is placed; and
 - (e) If the bidder breaches any provision of code of integrity prescribed for bidders specified in the Act and Chapter VI of the Rules.

- (xii) In case of the successful bidder, the amount of bid security may be adjusted in arriving at the amount of the Performance Security, or refunded if the successful bidder furnishes the full amount of performance security.
- (xiii) The procuring entity shall promptly return the bid security after the earliest of the following events, namely: -
 - (a) The expiry of validity of bid security;
 - (b) The execution of agreement for procurement and performance security is furnished by the successful bidder;
 - (c) The cancellation of the procurement process; or
 - (d) The withdrawal of bid prior to the deadline for presenting bids, unless the bidding documents stipulate that no such withdrawal is permitted.

3. Period of Validity of Bids:

- (1) Bids submitted by the bidders shall remain valid during the period specified in the bidding documents. This period should normally be not more than ninety days, but depending on the nature of the procurement it may be more. A bid valid for a shorter period shall be rejected by the procuring entity as non-responsive.
- (2) Prior to the expiry of the period of validity of bids, the procuring entity, in exceptional circumstances, may request the bidders to extend the bid validity period for an additional specified period of time. A bidder may refuse the request and such refusal shall be treated as withdrawal of bid but in such circumstances bid security shall not be forfeited.
- (3) Bidders that agree to an extension of the period of validity of their bids shall extend or get extended the period of validity of bid securities submitted by them or submit new bid securities to cover the extended period of validity of their bids. A bidder whose bid security is not extended, or that has not submitted a new bid security, is considered to have refused the request to extend the period of validity of its bid.

4. Purchase Preference in Evaluation:

If applicable, purchase preference shall be given to the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises of Rajasthan in the evaluation of bids and award of contract as per notification of the Finance Department, Govt. of Rajasthan which was published on 19-11-2015 and other notifications, circulars issued from time to time by the Finance Department, Govt. of Rajasthan.

5. Acceptance of the Successful Bid and Award of Contract:

- (1) The procuring entity after considering the recommendations of the bid evaluation committee and the conditions of bid, if any, financial implications, trials, sample testing and test reports, etc., shall accept or reject the successful bid. If any member of the bid evaluation committee, has disagreed or given its note of dissent, the matter shall be referred to the next higher authority, as per delegation of financial powers, for decision.
- (2) Decision on bids shall be taken within original validity period of bids and time period allowed to procuring entity for taking decision. If the decision is not taken within the original validity period or time limit allowed for taking decision, the matter shall be referred to the next higher authority in delegation of financial powers for decision.
- (3) Before award of the contract, the procuring entity shall ensure that the price of successful bid is reasonable and consistent with the required quality.
- (4) A bid shall be treated as successful only after the competent authority has approved the procurement in terms of that bid.
- (5) The procuring entity shall award the contract to the bidder whose offer has been determined to be the lowest or most advantageous in accordance with the evaluation criteria set out in the bidding documents and if the bidder has been determined to be qualified to perform the contract satisfactorily on the basis of qualification criteria fixed for the bidders in the bidding documents for the subject matter of procurement.
- (6) Prior to the expiration of the period of bid validity, the procuring entity shall inform the successful bidder, in writing, that its bid has been accepted.

- (7) As soon as a bid is accepted by the competent authority, its written intimation shall be sent to the concerned bidder by registered post or email and asked to execute an agreement in the format given in the bidding documents on a non-judicial stamp of requisite value and deposit the amount of performance security or a performance security declaration, if applicable, within a period specified in the bidding documents or where the period is not specified in the bidding documents then within fifteen days from the date on which the letter of acceptance or letter of intent is dispatched to the bidder.
- (8) If the issuance of formal letter of acceptance is likely to take time, in the meanwhile a Letter of Intent (LOI) may be sent to the bidder. The acceptance of an offer is complete as soon as the letter of acceptance or letter of intent is posted and/ or sent by email (if available) to the address of the bidder given in the bidding document. Until a formal contract is executed, the letter of acceptance or Letter of Intent shall constitute a binding contract.
- (9) The bid security of the bidders whose bids could not be accepted shall be refunded soon after the contract with the successful bidder is signed and its performance security is obtained.

6. Procuring Entity's right to accept or reject any or all bids:

The Procuring entity reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the bidders. Reasons for doing so shall be recorded in writing.

7. Right to vary Quantity:

- (1) If the procuring entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the bidding documents due to change in circumstances, the bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the bidding documents.
- (2) Repeat orders for extra items or additional quantities may be placed, if it is provided in the bidding documents, on the rates and conditions given in the contract if the original order was given after inviting open competitive bids. Delivery or completion period may also be proportionately increased. The limits of repeat order shall be as under-
 - a. 50% of the quantity of the individual items and 50% of the value of original contract in case of works; and
 - b. 50% of the value of goods or services of the original contract.
- (3) If the bidder fails to do so, the procuring entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited bid or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recoverable from the bidder.

8. Dividing Quantities among more than one bidder at the time of Award:

As a general rule all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the bidder, whose bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the bidder, whose bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the bidder, whose bid is accepted and the second lowest bidder or even more bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the bidder, whose bid is accepted if such condition is specified in the bidding documents. Counter offer to first lowest bidder (L1), in order to arrive at an acceptable price, shall amount to negotiation. However, any counter offer thereafter to second lowest bidder (L2), third lowest bidder (L3) etc., (at the rates accepted by L1) in case of splitting of quantities, as pre- disclosed in the bidding documents, shall not be deemed to be a negotiation.

9. Performance Security:

- (i) Performance security shall be solicited from all successful bidders except the departments of the State Government and undertakings, corporations, autonomous bodies, registered societies, co-operative societies which are owned or controlled or managed by the State Government and undertakings of the Central Government. However, a performance security declaration shall be taken from them. The State Government may relax the provision of performance security in particular procurement or any class of procurement.
- (ii) The amount of performance security shall be five percent of the amount of supply order in case of procurement of goods and services and ten percent of the amount of work order in case of procurement of works. In case of Small-Scale Industries of Rajasthan, it shall be one percent of the amount of quantity ordered for supply of goods and in case of sick industries, other than Small Scale Industries, whose cases are pending before the Board of Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR), it shall be two percent of the amount of supply order
- (iii) Performance security shall be furnished in any one of the following forms-
 - (a) Deposit through eGRAS;
 - (b) Bank Draft or Banker's Cheque of a scheduled bank;
 - (c) National Savings Certificates and any other script/instrument under National Savings Schemes for promotion of small savings issued by a Post Office in Rajasthan, if the same can be pledged under the relevant rules. They shall be accepted at their surrender value at the time of bid and formally transferred in the name of procuring entity with the approval of Head Post Master;
 - (d) Bank guarantee/s of a scheduled bank. It shall be got verified from the issuing bank. Other conditions regarding bank guarantee shall be same as mentioned in the RTTP rule 42 for bid security;
 - (e) Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of a scheduled bank. It shall be in the name of procuring entity on account of bidder and discharged by the bidder in advance. The procuring entity shall ensure before accepting the Fixed Deposit Receipt that the bidder furnishes an undertaking from the bank to make payment/premature payment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt on demand to the procuring entity without requirement of consent of the bidder concerned. In the event of forfeiture of the performance security, the Fixed Deposit shall be forfeited along with interest earned on such Fixed Deposit.
 - (f) In case of procurement of works, the successful bidder at the time of signing of the contract agreement, may submit option for deduction of performance security from each running and final bill @ 10% of the amount of the bill.
- (iv) Performance security furnished in the form as specified in clauses of the RTTP Rules shall remain valid for a period of sixty days beyond the date of completion of all contractual obligations of the bidder, including warranty obligations and maintenance and defect liability period.
- (v) Performance security shall be furnished by the successful bidder within the fifteen days from the date of award of contract in any one of the forms which are mentioned in the RTTP Rules 2013.
- (vi) No interest will be paid on the Performance Security.
- (vii) Performance Security may be forfeited in fully or partly, in the following cases:
 - (a) when any terms and conditions of the contract are breached.
 - (b) when the Bidder fails to make supply satisfactorily.

10. Execution of Agreement:

- (i) A procurement contract shall come into force from the date on which the letter of acceptance or letter of intent is dispatched to the bidder.
- (ii) The successful bidder shall sign the procurement contract on non-judicial stamp of Rs. 500/- (Rupees Five Hundred only) within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the letter of acceptance or letter of intent is dispatched to the successful bidder.

- (iii) The bidder shall furnish the following documents at the time of execution of agreement:
 - (a) Attested copy of partnership deed in case of partnership firms.
 - (b) Registration number and year registration in case partnership firm is registered with Registrar of Firms.
 - (c) Address of residence and office, telephone numbers in case of sole proprietorship.
 - (d) Registration issued by Registrar of Companies in case of company.
- (iv) If the bidder, whose bid has been accepted, fails to sign a written procurement contract or fails to furnish the required performance security within specified period, the procuring entity shall take action against the successful bidder as per the provisions of the RTPP Act and the RTPP Rules 2013. The procuring entity may, in such case, cancel the procurement process or if it deems fit, offer for acceptance the rates of lowest or most advantageous bidder to the next lowest or most advantageous bidder, in accordance with the criteria and procedures set out in the bidding documents.

11. Code of Integrity:

- (i) All the officers or employees of the procuring entity shall, -
 - (a) maintain an unimpeachable standard of integrity both inside and outside their office;
 - (b) act in accordance with the provisions of the Act, these rules, guidelines issued under the Act and instructions;
 - (c) not allow any bidders to have access to information on a particular procurement, before such information is available to the public at large;
 - (d) not intentionally use unnecessarily restrictive or “tailored” specifications, terms of reference or statements of work that can discourage competition;
 - (e) not solicit or accept any bribe, reward or gift or any material benefit of any directly or indirectly promise of future employment from anyone, who has sought or is seeking procurement from the procuring entity;
 - (f) not have a financial interest in any bidder(s) responding to a procuring entity’s bidding process and any person having financial interest in any bidder shall not participate in that procurement process;
 - (g) not disclose proprietary and source selection information, directly or indirectly, to any person other than a person authorized to receive such information;
 - (h) treat all bidders in a fair and equitable manner in line with the principle of fairness, integrity and transparency in the procurement process;
 - (i) provide all bidders identical information at the same time, during the bidding process;
 - (j) apply the same criteria of evaluation as specified in the bidding documents, bidder registration documents or pre-qualification documents and under no circumstances new evaluation criteria shall be introduced during the evaluation process;
 - (k) not entertain any favour, recreation, presents, services, etc. from the bidders or prospective bidders;

Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of Arithmetic Errors:

Provided that a Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the procuring entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis:

- (i) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the procuring entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- (ii) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- (iii) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (i) and (ii) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated bid which does not accepted the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procurement Entity's Right to Vary the Quantity:

- (i) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of goods, works or services originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms & conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- (ii) If the procuring entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the bidding documents due to change in circumstances, the bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the conditions of contract.
- (iii) In case of procurement of goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not be more than 25% of the value of goods of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last supply. If the Supplier fail to do so, the procuring entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited Bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Supplier.

3. Dividing quantities among one than more Bidder at the time of Award (in Case of Procurement of Goods):

As a general rule, all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the Bidders, whose Bid is accepted and the second lowest Bidder or even more Bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted.
